NUST expects students' attendance in the classes to be 100%, however, under extreme compassionate reasons / medical sickness of the students, acceptable to authority, 25% allowance may be granted. Hence, at least 75% attendance is mandatory for students to take End Semester Exam in given subjects. Students are required to be present in the classroom as per the training program. Those who join late or leave the classroom without permission will be marked absent. Absence on medical grounds will also be considered as ABSENT for the purpose of counting mandatory attendance.

15. Academic Honesty

SMME requires all students to adhere to high standards of integrity in their academic work. The school follows a zero-tolerance policy for activities such as plagiarism and cheating. Students found involved in such activities are subject to serious disciplinary action. This may include being awarded an "F" grade by the teacher, academic suspension or expulsion. The plagiarism policy is strictly followed to ensure academic integrity.

Plagiarism is defined as the use, whether by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another without complete and clear acknowledgment. Cheating includes the giving or receiving of unauthorized assistance on quizzes, examinations or written assignments from any source not approved by the teacher. Examples of cheating include but are not limited to:-

- a. Submitting someone else's work as one's own with or without the permission of the individual concerned
- b. Allowing someone to copy one's work
- c. Using a writing service or having someone else to write a paper for oneself
- d. Using someone else's work without proper citation
- e. Submitting collaborative and/or group work as one's own
- f. Stealing a test or question paper from a teacher or her/his office
- g. Taking a course and/or examination for another student
- h. Using unauthorized materials during a test or exam

16. Accuracy of University Records

Students are expected to furnish accurate and complete information on all university forms and documents, including applications for admission and financial aid, references, local and home addresses and other types of records. Provision of inaccurate/concealment of information may lead to termination from the university. It is student's responsibility to ensure subsequent updates on change of any information.
